

The Future of Wealth Management Workflow Automation

Fifth Week of February 2022, Wealth Solutions Report

Workflow Automation Attracts Advisors and Clients, Cuts Costs and Increases Efficiencies; Machine Learning and Data Capabilities Will Drive Further Innovation.

We asked a diverse segment of our readers who are C-suite decision-makers at large independent broker-dealers as well as RIA aggregators whether they agreed or disagreed with a series of statements about workflow automation, using a scale from 1 to 10 ... The results are interesting, to say the least ...
