

Supreme Court's EPA Ruling Could Kill Fiduciary Rule 2.0 Efforts

Fourth Week of July 2022, Wealth Solutions Report

SCOTUS Conservative Majority's Ruling on EPA Has Significant Implications for Wealth Management Regulatory Landscape.

The Supreme Court's recent ruling underscores that its conservative majority is willing to adopt a more activist stance on a wide range of issues. And perhaps even more importantly, the ruling sends a clear message that SCOTUS believes in carefully limiting the powers of regulators.

What does this mean for wealth management regulations?
